We only looked at the past, and used that as a point of comparison to look forward to. But most importantly, we learned from what had happened. With those lessons we are now fighting a different battle and we have a new perspective. You are greatly underestimated, your blog is great. The effort you put in it is totally what made it what it is. You should be more appreciated, more powerful and to top it all off, more successful. But one thing I must commend you on is how you have kept this blog going, and continuing. I know that it must be very discouraging and hard to get past every bad thing that comes along and still keep on going, but you have kept on going! Rant on! And most importantly, thank you. Ajax Hey, Ajax: Thanks. You're welcome. But seriously, thank you. You didn't like what happened to me in the past? That's fine. I don't have to like it either. That's right. You're not obliged to like me at all. I get it. You're right. I'm not on anyone's side. I get it. Good. Now, if you don't mind, I'm going to go re-install the WordPress blog, see if I can't improve its performance or something. Ah, the great WordPress bug of 2012. But
